CRUISE ITINERARIES

Solitude endeavours to provide the cruise as booked and paid for in accordance with our published schedules and itinerary. However, Solitude reserves the right to make any alterations to any itinerary as deemed necessary. Solitude also reserves the right to cancel the whole cruise itinerary or any part of the itinerary for any reason, including an insufficient number of participants, inclement weather, logistics, mechanical, safety considerations, etc.

CANCELLATION & AMENDMENTS ANNOUNCEMENTS by SOLITUDE

Solitude and its associates act only as service providers for the transportation, accommodation, scuba diving activities, boating activities and other principal service. We accept no responsibilities for civil unrest, terrorism, strikes, illness, epidemics, accidents, injuries, damage, loss and theft, quarantine, customs regulations, changes in flight itinerary, delays, deportation or refusal of entry by immigration authorities and other circumstances beyond Solitude's control.

In case where an amendment is made by Solitude to overall cruise duration, the affected cruise guests will be offered a credit or refund of the cruise fare pro-rated by the number of days reduced from which the cruise itinerary was scheduled for.

In case where a cancellation of a cruise is made, Solitude shall endeavour to provide suitable recourse which include, but not necessarily limited to, participating on another available cruise offered by Solitude, full refund of the cruise fare amount that is already to Solitude (credit for future booking or cash) to the affected cruise guests' consideration. If no recourse offered by Solitude can be accepted by the affected cruise guests, Solitude shall reserve the right to provide a full refund of the cruise fare amount that is already to Solitude in cash and consider the refunded cruise booking as cancelled.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

You are to have a valid visa (if required) and international passport with a minimum of SIX months' validity from the date of entry to every country which Solitude operates in (which may be 2 or more countries in a single cruise itinerary) and to ensure that you have sufficient number of empty pages in your passport for immigration entry visa stamp. Solitude will not be responsible for any inconveniences and incidentals caused by your failure to undertake this responsibility (including the verification of visa requirements). If any of Solitude' guests should be refused entry into the country of the Cruise Embarkation and Disembarkation port, for any reason whatsoever, Solitude reserves the right to apply the "No-Show" cancellation policy and the affected guest(s) shall be responsible for all expenses that will be incurred due to such event, including returning home.

TRAVEL INSURANCE and DIVE INSURANCE

Travel Insurance is mandatory for all guests on board Solitude's liveaboard. If you are undertaking skin and scuba diving activities, the insurance should provide coverage for scuba related injuries and international evacuations in addition to other standard travel insurance policy coverage. The insurance policy should cover international emergency evacuations, trip cancellations, baggage loss, hospitalisations, medical treatments including hyperbaric recompression, etc.

Solitude will not take any responsibility whatsoever for any expenses that may be incurred through lack of adequate or no insurance coverage undertaken by you.

FORCE MAJEURE (Including World Pandemic Declaration)

Solitude will not be liable to you and/or any other parties for any delay or disruption including "no-show" caused by a Force Majeure event, whether or not such events were foreseeable. "Force Majeure Event" means any cause beyond the reasonable control of a party that could not, by any reasonable diligence, be avoided, including acts of God, acts of war, terrorism, riots, embargos, acts of civil or military authorities, fire, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, typhoons, pandemic outbreak and/or denial of entry or delays in the course of clearing immigration, quarantine and customs of any port of entries into a country.

The Booking Terms & Conditions

Updated on 10 January 2025

You are strongly encouraged to ensure that your choice of travel insurance policy adequately covers you for most, if not all of any Force Majeure Events. Solitude will not take any responsibility whatsoever for any expenses that may be incurred through lack of adequate or no insurance coverage undertaken by you.

DIVE CERTIFICATION PROOF

All guests participating in recreational guided or unguided scuba activities must present their dive certification card and/or dive log book for verification. Solitude reserves the right to reject any dive participation or suggest a refresher course if any scuba participant is unable to perform dive skills at level deemed safe to continue participation in normal diving activities.

Solitude reserves the right to reject any participation in scuba diving activities if dive certification proof is not presented upon request.

No refunds will be granted if any guest is rejected from participating for reasons beyond the control of Solitude (i.e., failure to provide proof of dive certification/qualification or health problems) from any activities that has been prepaid.

DISCHARGED OF LIABILITIES AND INDEMNIFICATION

Solitude and its associates act only as service providers for the transportation, accommodation, scuba diving activities, boating activities and other principal service. We accept no responsibilities for civil unrest, terrorism, strikes, illness, epidemics, accidents, injuries, damage, loss and theft, quarantine, customs regulations, changes in flight itinerary, delays, deportation or refusal of entry by immigration authorities and other circumstances beyond Solitude's control.

All guests participating in any form of scuba and skin-diving activity (including boating, snorkelling) must sign and accept our Liability Waiver & Assumption of Risk form(s).

If neither party (Solitude, you, your client) will take any action, you agree that the courts of the Republic of Singapore shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any litigation arising from any action you bring against Solitude; to submit to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of the Republic of Singapore; and to waive any and all personal rights under the law of any jurisdiction to object on any basis (including, without limitation, inconvenience of forum) to jurisdiction or venue within the Republic of Singapore for any litigation arising in connection with this Agreement.

GUEST ETIQUETTE AND CONSIDERATION

Solitude, its Captains, General Managers (Cruise Directors), or any other deputized figures of authority onboard the vessels reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to disembark any guest (or confined in their cabin), in any port of call, for any reason, should they be considered a nuisance to or endanger the "quiet enjoyment" of guests onboard or if they are found to be a nuisance, threat or danger to guests, staff or otherwise hinder the safe and secure operation of the vessel or any associated land programs. Any guest(s) disembarked from the vessels are solely responsible for any costs incurred with repatriation. The full cruise fare will be considered earned and retained and no refunds or reimbursements given.
