TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

You are to have a valid visa (if required) and international passport with a minimum of SIX months' validity from the date of entry to every country which Solitude operates in (which may be 2 or more countries in a single cruise itinerary) and to ensure that you have sufficient number of empty pages in your passport for immigration entry visa stamp. Solitude will not be responsible for any inconveniences and incidentals caused by your failure to undertake this responsibility (including the verification of visa requirements). If any of Solitude's guests should be refused entry into the country of the Cruise Embarkation and Disembarkation port, for any reason whatsoever, Solitude reserves the right to apply the "No-Show" cancellation policy and the affected guest(s) shall be responsible for all expenses that will be incurred due to such event, including returning home.

TRAVEL INSURANCE and DIVE INSURANCE

Travel Insurance is mandatory for all guests on board Solitude's liveaboards and strongly recommended for our Solitude's resorts. If you are undertaking skin and scuba diving activities, the insurance should provide coverage for scuba related injuries and international evacuations in addition to other standard travel insurance policy coverage. The insurance policy should cover international emergency evacuations, trip cancellations, baggage loss, hospitalisations, medical treatments including hyperbaric recompression, etc.

Solitude will not take any responsibility nor obligation to pay whatsoever for any expenses that may be incurred through lack of adequate or no insurance coverage undertaken by you.

The Booking Terms & Conditions

Updated on 14 December 2022

FORCE MAJEURE (Including World Pandemic Declaration)

Solitude will not be liable to you and/or any other parties for any delay or disruption including "no-show" caused by a Force Majeure event, whether or not such events were foreseeable. "Force Majeure Event" means any cause beyond the reasonable control of a party that could not, by any reasonable diligence, be avoided, including acts of God, acts of war, terrorism, riots, embargos, acts of civil or military authorities, fire, floods, earthquakes, tsunami, typhoons, pandemic outbreak and/or denial of entry or delays in the course of clearing immigration, quarantine and customs of any port of entries into a country.

You are strongly encouraged to ensure that your choice of travel insurance policy adequately covers you for most, if not all of any Force Majeure Events. Solitude will not take any responsibility whatsoever for any expenses that may be incurred through lack of adequate or no insurance coverage undertaken by you.

DIVE CERTIFICATION PROOF

All guests participating in recreational guided or unguided scuba activities must present their dive certification card and/or dive log book for verification. Solitude reserves the right to reject any dive participation or suggest a refresher course if any scuba participant is unable to perform dive skills at level deemed safe to continue participation in normal diving activities.

Solitude reserves the right to reject any participation in scuba diving activities if dive certification proof is not presented upon request.

No refunds will be granted if any guest is rejected from participating for reasons beyond the control of Solitude (i.e. failure to provide proof of dive certification/qualification or health problems) from any activities that has been prepaid.

DISCHARGED OF LIABILITIES AND INDEMNIFICATION

Solitude and its associates act only as service providers for the transportation, accommodation, scuba diving activities, boating activities and other principal service. We accept no responsibilities for civil unrest, terrorism, strikes, illness, epidemics, accidents, injuries, damage, loss and theft, quarantine, customs regulations, changes in flight itinerary, delays, deportation or refusal of entry by immigration authorities and other circumstances beyond Solitude's control.

All guests participating in any form of scuba and skin diving activity (including boating, snorkeling) and/or any other water activities must sign and accept our Liability Waiver & Assumption of Risk form(s).

If neither party (Solitude, you, your client) will take any action, you agree that the courts of the Republic of Singapore shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any litigation arising from any action you bring against Solitude; to submit to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of the Republic of Singapore; and to waive any and all personal rights under the law of any jurisdiction to object on any basis (including, without limitation, inconvenience of forum) to jurisdiction or venue within the Republic of Singapore for any litigation arising in connection with this Agreement.

GUEST ETIQUETTE AND CONSIDERATION

Solitude, its General Managers (Cruise Directors or Resort Managers), or any other deputized figures of authority on the property reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to cancel any guest's stay and/or booked services with the resort and regard them as "persona non-grata" should they be considered a nuisance, a threat or danger to guests, staff or otherwise hinder the safe and secure operation of the resort or any associated activities. All "persona non-grata" are responsible to pay in full any unpaid services that were rendered to them and are solely responsible for any other expenses incurred after having the resort services cancelled.
